Wooying's Wooying. All of a sudden there was a fire truck sound. The fire truck light was almost all over the place. Fire truck came. I was surprised. The light of the fire truck was flashing. There were a exciting feeling and a scary feeling. Red and yellow light was flashing. I was scared. We went on the grass. I was scared that the fire was real. We had fire drills all the times but not fire truck. This is the first time that it happened to me as a child. I was at the Halloween Happening with my mommy and brother. I wondered if we could live from this fire drill. The fire drill last for a long time. I thought at the Halloween

~~Happening was fun but instead it~~ was scary. Finally the Mrs. Jackson said on the speaker that it was not real.

We were standing in line before the fire drill, now we go back in line. I was really scared to see a fire truck so close. The fire truck was the closest thing I EVER SAW!!
