

Football game By Susan

One night, on my birthday when I turned 8, I went to grandma's house. Only dad and I were. It was excited to go with dad. We picked up grandma and went to a football game where dad football when he was young. When we got there tickets were everywhere! First we bought our tickets and went to sit down.

We watched for a minute then we waited for 20 minutes for the band.

Then the band played music as if marched about the field. The music was wonderful. A little later while the band still played, some women dressed in the exact same clothes started to dance. It was real cool. After was over, dad, grandma, and I started to look for dad's high school friends. We saw some and we sit with them. I was surprised dad saw some friends. Then we waited for 10 minutes. Then some floats came by. Some of them had a ton of people. Some had just a little. I never even knew floats would come because it was my first time to go to a football game. And F-I-N-A-L-L-Y F-I-N-A-L-L-Y

The football players started playing football after the lights finished. Dad was cheering on the woodside team.

We watched until there were five more minutes of the game.

"Daddy" I asked "When will we go home?"

"Let's go now." my dad said. Then we said good-bye to dad's friends and left the place. As we walked to our car I asked and "Daddy? Can you ask the people in the region you have tomorrow which team won." "Yeah." Dad answered. Then we went in the car and drove to grandmas house. When We got there I ate a popside it was delicious. Then I brushed my teeth and said good bye to grand ma. Then dad and we drove to our house. While we were driving I wondered which team
