

One Saturday night my dad was a sleep and he was ~~sleeping~~ tied.
But the tv was on! But I could not do any thing

Because I thought he was going to wake up.

This was the worst day of my entire life

Then my mom was on the computer tap, tap, tap on the computer. my mom would always be on the computer.

She was making dinner

to. it smelled so good that I could eat it.

Wall my mom was makeing dinner me and my Brothers were Playing in the Living room. we were jumping on

The couchis. and tuning around the living room.

and we were haveing a pilo fights to.

But then I was not filling well. so I felt a sleep.
But when I was a sleep I thought that we were going to

Brake! something, and do you no what happend next...

I woke! up and glass was shattering all over the floor. and I heard Boom.

and I had to fix it and really fast!

But I could not do it that fast.

so my dad woke up and my mom jumped off the computer.

and told us what happened they broke

it. I said to her.

My mom told me to go to bed. and my brothers got in trouble.

But I didn't.

But I still went to sleep. and my brothers were grounded, and I was thinking that they may have learned there less, I hope.
